The purpose of the course (World Criminal Justice Systems, CJS 369) is to acquaint students with culture, history, and criminal justice structure and issues of criminal justice in selected common law, civil law, socialist, and Islamic countries. In addition, special emphasis is given to unique crimes such as dowry deaths, infanticide, human trafficking, and genocide.

Students will learn the issues through:

- Daily discussion of current international Issues
- Class lectures
- Research Paper
- Presentations