

Social Justice: An Experience Through Genocide in Germany and Poland

DATES

May 23 –June 4, 2018

APPLICATION DEADLINE

February 1, 2018

APPLY

<http://studyabroad.illinoisstate.edu/destinations/germany/germanycjs/index.php>

Eligibility:

- Open to all majors and minors
- Preference given to CJS Majors
- ISU cumulative GPA of 2.3 or higher undergraduate, 3.0 graduate
- Completion of 24 credit hours at ISU or other college/university prior to program departure, good academic and disciplinary standing

Program Description:

- During this program students will visit cultural and historical sites in Germany and Poland.
- This program aims to expose students from various disciplines to the past practices of genocide and its effects on society. The systematic and organized killings of Jews, gypsies, homosexuals and political rivals of Adolf Hitler during WWII still stands as the vanguard of genocidal practices today. The absence of human/civil rights and liberties during this time laid the foundation for the necessary study of social justice.
- Students will earn 3-6 credits during this 12 day program in Germany and Poland.

Housing:

- Double/triple hotel rooms

Program Visits:

- Munich, Germany: Dachau Concentration Camp & Neuschwanstein Castle
- Berlin, Germany: Hohenschoenhausen (Stasi Prison), Berlin Wall, Various Memorials & Cultural Sites, Sachsenhausen Concentration Camp, Buchenwald (Weimar, Germany)
- Oswiecim, Poland: Auschwitz I & II (aka Birkenau)
- Kraków, Poland: Oskar Schindler's Enamel Factory, Jewish District, Ghetto Heroes Square

Cost

- $5,745.91 for 10 students; $5,268.62 for 15 students
- Cost includes round-trip airfare from O'Hare; accommodations; transportation and admissions fees to program visits; ISU reduced tuition; international insurance; passport

Scholarships and Financial Aid:

- Financial Aid and scholarships may be applied
- For more information visit <http://studyabroad.illinoisstate.edu/cost/financialaid/>

Faculty Director Contact Information:

- Dr. Jacqueline L. Schneider
ISU Criminal Justice Sciences (4th Floor Schroeder Hall)
j Schneider@ilstu.edu